

I am letting you know what I think about changing the no-call in Indiana. I know who and what I want when I want something and I don't need someone calling me! I don't want any calls wanting to sell me anything or wanting me to do something I'm not ready to do.

I don't need help deciding what or when I want to do anything! I like the way things are right now!!!!